STUDY OF THE SERVICES OFFERED TO RETIRED TEACHERS BY THEIR FORMER EMPLOYER

At each of AREF'S last two annual general meetings (AGM 2018 and 2019), we held a brief survey inviting members to express their expectations regarding the services offered by AREF, their association, as well as the role expected of their regional representative.

One of the most evident findings of these surveys is the following: the services and advantages offered to retired teachers by the institution from which they retired vary greatly from one institution to another. In order to get a clearer picture of the situation and thus better equip your regional representative to address your needs, we again seek your assistance by asking you to fill in the enclosed survey to the best of your knowledge; the more answers we receive, even if incomplete or partial, the better the global picture will be. Hopefully, we should be able to report on the question at the next general meeting on May 13, as well as in the next issue of AREF-Info.

We thank you sincerely for sending your completed survey to secretariat@aref-neq.ca before March 23. (Since the attached .pdf document is interactive, all that is needed is to download it, fill it in, save the document and include it with your answering email.)
